

The Indian Econometric Society (TIES)

EMINENT SPEAKERS

AT

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON ECONOMICS AND FINANCE, 2019

DR S. MADESHWARAN

Mr. S. Madheswaran, the Vice President of The Indian Econometric Society is the Professor and Head at Centre for Economic Studies and Policy, Institute for Social and Economic Change, Bangalore. He is also the Vice Chairperson of Research and Academic Programme Committee at ISEC. He was also the data and analysis Consultancy Coordinator for the Western Region of ICSSR, Gokhale, Institute of Politics and Economics, Pune and has also worked in the Planning, Programme Monitoring and Statistics Department, Government of Karnataka. He is a Ph.D. in Econometrics from Department of Econometrics, University of Madras and has done M.A.(Economics) from Bharathiar University.

His areas of specialisation include:

- Economics of Labour
- Economics of Education
- Environmental Economics
- Applied Econometrics

He also submitted an Action Plan for Karnataka State Assembly Election, 2018.

MR BHASKAR RANJAN DAS

Bhaskar heads South Asia for CIMA. Bhaskar has a multi-industry-sector experience with 18 years in IT Software & Services, 9 years in Education and 4 years in Consulting - primarily in building businesses and evangelizing new concepts in Strategic Outsourcing, eLearning, Corporate University models and Resource Optimization. He has worked with Indian corporates and MNC's such as HCL, Fujitsu ICIM, IBM, U21Global, Manipal Global Education and Realization Tech. in his earlier assignments. Bhaskar is a B.E. in Electrical Engineering from Jadavpur University, Calcutta and an M.B.A. From the University of Melbourne, Australia.

DR SASHI SIVRAMKRISHNA

Prof. Sashi completed his M.A. in Economics from Bombay (now Mumbai) University in 1985 and Ph.D. in Economics from Cornell University, Ithaca, in 1990. After more than ten years in business, he returned to academia in 2000 and is currently a Professor of Economics at the Narsee Monjee Institute for Management Studies (NMIMS), Bengaluru. His teaching interests are mainly micro and macroeconomics. His research interests are eclectic.

He has published in subjects ranging from microeconomic theory to environment economics, from economic and monetary history to contemporary macroeconomic country studies. Sir is also an avid documentary filmmaker. His films have been screened at international festivals around the world and some have been screened on channels including National Geographic and Doordarshan. He is a reviewer for various journals.